

Venice Classic Radio is a webradio, which can be listened anywhere, provided that an Internet connection, traditional or wireless, be present. Here are all the ways to listen to Venice Classic Radio (to start the reception, click on the specific icons on the side):

Venice Classic Player

The player developed by Venice Classic Radio lets you to listen to the radio with all the information

Traditionals players

The listening to Venice Classic Radio is also possible using the traditional iTunes

is a popular program for the acquisition and the listening of music developed

Winamp

is one of the most popular players. It exists for Windows, Mac (called MacAmp)

Mediaplayer

is the ore-defined player for Windows systems.

Real Player

has been one of the first multimedia player. It is available for Windows, Mac

VideoLan

(VLC) is known for its ability to play virtually any format. It is available for Wi

Mobile devices

Venice Classic Radio does not have yet an application dedicated to mobile devices. We therefore iPhone, iPad, Android, Windows Mobile, Blackberry, Palm, Sanyo

TuneIn

is a very good for listening to a huge number of web radio from all around the

Android

Xiialive

is an excellent application based on the list of the Shoutcast radios, highly recommended. For listening to Venice Classic Radio on the move, we recommend using the paid version of the application.

Nokia Symbian

The Nokia Symbian operating system integrates a Real Player, which is started by clicking the icon. In the newer system, Nokia has made available an application dedicated to Internet Radio.